PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT, 4 OF 2013 ("POPIA")

To facilitate the implementation, administration and performance of the contractual and/or other commercial relationship(s) between Freshlinq (Pty) Ltd ("Freshlinq") and yourself, and/or for certain other legitimate interests of Freshlinq or yourself, it may be necessary for Freshlinq to collect, hold and process (as defined in POPIA) certain personal information (as defined in POPIA) about you, and to transfer this personal information to certain third parties. You hereby explicitly and unambiguously consent to Freshlinq's collection, processing and transfer, in electronic or other form, of your personal information for the purposes of implementing, administering and performing the aforementioned contractual and/or other commercial relationship(s) and for Freshlinq and/or your other legitimate interests.

Freshlinq undertakes to at all time comply with the provisions of POPIA for as far as its collection, processing and transfer of your personal information is concerned.

You understand and acknowledge that Freshlinq may be entitled, in terms of POPIA, to collect, transfer and process your personal information irrespective of whether or not Freshlinq holds your consent to do so, but Freshlinq may however not be able to fully discharge its obligations to you, or otherwise fully serve you, in the event that it does not hold your aforementioned consent.

You herewith warrant and guarantee that all information provided by you to Freshlinq is true, accurate, complete, and not misleading, and further that no such information constitutes or contains any information which you are not fully authorised to share with and provide to Freshlinq. You have full right, tile and authority to authorise, and to consent to, Freshlinq collecting, transferring and processing any and all information provided to Freshlinq by you. You undertake that you shall fully inform Freshlinq of any and all changes to any and all information provided to Freshlinq by you, as and when such changes occur without delay.
